

If you'd like a physical, bookish copy of the content you just read, following is a piece of instruction from the creator of the content on how to do it!

This book comes in 4 parts:

1. Booklet A { > print page 9 and 10 from the PDF file using a normal home printer with lightweight printer/text paper on both sides; fold in three folds}
2. Booklet B { > print page 2 to 8 using the same paper for booklet A on both sides; fold in half}
3. Cover {print the first page using the same paper for booklet A and B; fold in three folds}
4. Saddle stitching { > use a stapler that is either designed for saddle stitching or that can be opened to lay flat for tacking; assemble booklets and staple according to the diagram below}
